You just call out my name
And you know wherever I am
I'll come running to see you again.

Winter, spring, summer or fall
All you've got to do is call,
And I'll be there, yes I will —
You've got a friend.

OXFORD HIGH SCHOOL

RAVELINS

MEMORIES OF THE CLASS OF 1978

FOREWORD

Bruce Berglind and Donna Holt

Oxford High has been a part of life, a part of our lives which has shaped our future and has now become our past. We leave the building behind as a symbol of the relationships that have taken place here. The school, in a sense, has imparted upon us an understanding of friendship, and then sent us each our separate ways expanding that understanding beyond the confines of the building.

The aim of this year's Ravelins has been to center upon an invaluable side of the past five years we have spent — with our friends. We, as a class and individually, have shared experiences and grown from them, at times grown apart, but eventually finding closer relationships.

Although the Class of '78 will soon be separated, we hope to have captured a meaningful portrayal of our senior year.

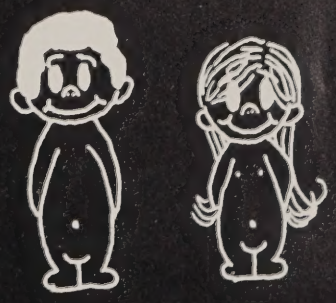
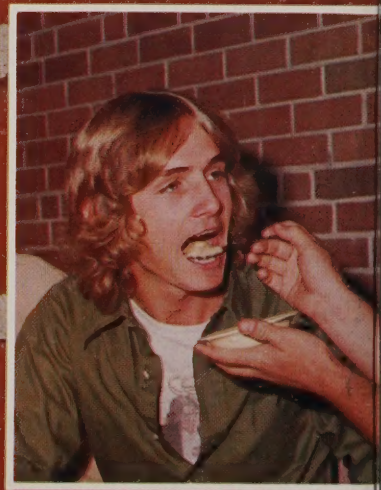
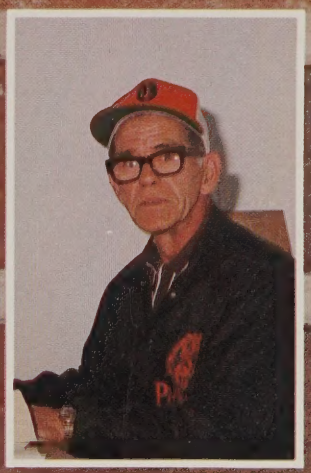
ADVERTISEMENTS

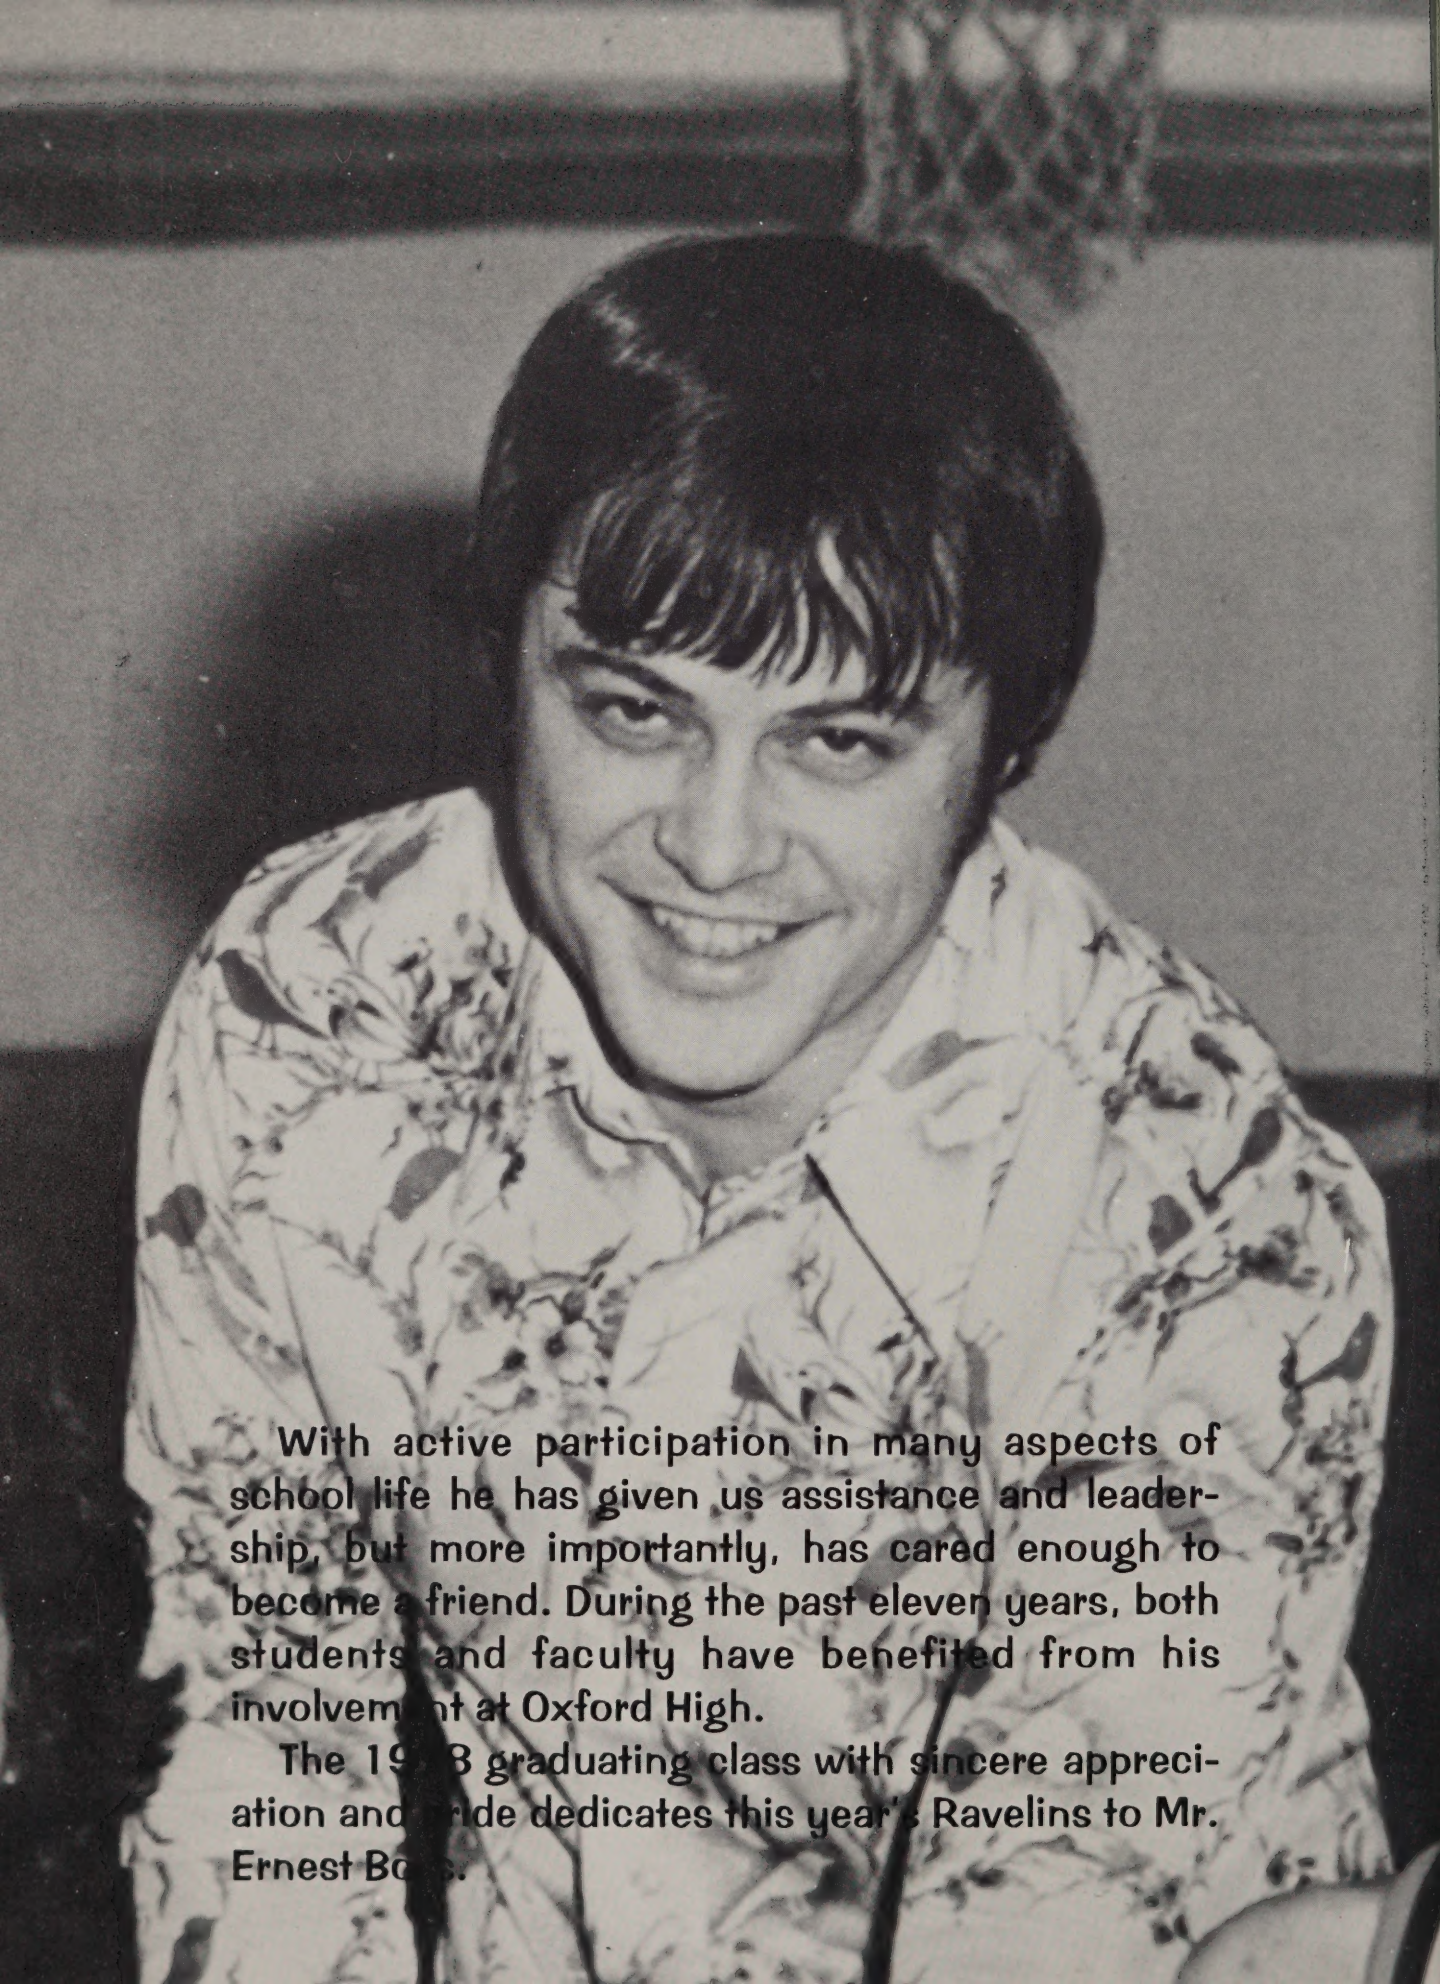
Of all the things which wisdom provides the greatest is the possession of friendship.



Your days are short here.
This is the last of your springs.
And now, in the serenity and quiet of this lovely place, touch the depths of truth. Feel the hem.
You will go away with old good friends.
Don't forget, when you leave, why you came.







With active participation in many aspects of school life he has given us assistance and leadership, but more importantly, has cared enough to become a friend. During the past eleven years, both students and faculty have benefited from his involvement at Oxford High.

The 1988 graduating class with sincere appreciation and pride dedicates this year's Ravelins to Mr. Ernest Bo[illegible]s.

The Literary Editors would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge all the accomplishments and activities which were a part of the 1977-1978 school year. Although we realize that these few pages aren't sufficient to fully encompass all happenings, we will attempt to highlight most events.

On the nights of December 9th and 10th, OHS was the scene of another successful dramatic production under the direction of Mr. Joseph Coonan — "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest." For the first time in the history of our school, an all senior cast performed. Not only was the audience moved by the leads, but by the non-speaking roles as well.

Another dramatic achievement was the drama festival, where each class participated in presenting a one-act play. Awards were presented for the best actors, actresses, and of course for the best play.

Chosen as representatives to Massachusetts' Boys' and Girls' State in the summer of 1977 were Michael Richard and Dianne Wessell. For one week, each underwent an intensive program concerned with increasing leadership abilities and knowledge of the government.

The boys' Gymnastics team had a very successful year, not only winning the right to compete in the State Championships but also many received honors, District Championship medals were awarded to Michael Conlon, Steven Donovan, Kenneth Fredette, Ross Flagg, Thomas Schneider and Gerald Wolfe. Mike Conlon also placed third in the floor exercises for the state. Mr. Hescheles was honored as Coach of the Year. Congratulations to all for a superior year.

The soccer team also had its share of outstanding members. William Corey was nominated to the SWCL Superteam, Mark Clark to the All Stars and Mike Palermo was named an Honorable Mention to The All Star team.

The boy's basketball team won the opportunity to compete in the Clark Tournament.

The Football team had two of its members honored for their outstanding achievements during the season. Brian Fortin was the recipient of an Honorable Mention in the Class C All Stars. While Co-Captain William Murphy was awarded the Steven Snyder Award at the Thanksgiving Day Game.

Although only in its second year, the hockey team has proved itself a mighty contender after placing third in the SWCL. Two team members were nominated to the SWCL All-Star team. Congratulations are extended to Mark Berthiaume and Bill Bixby for their accomplishments.

This year the girls' volleyball team had an outstanding year finishing the season with a 10 and 3 record. Under the leadership of co-captains Min Lehner and Sue Stewart the girls placed 3rd in District III Championship.

A new addition to OHS facilities is the Nature Trail which is presently being constructed with the help of science teachers and students. This project will not only be used by the school but the public as well. Its purpose is to present environments where plants and animals can be studied in their natural habitats.

In October the Class of '78 declared Senior T-Shirt Day. Almost all seniors took part sporting shirts that advertised everything from sport teams, college to the latest rock group. '78 has spirit to spare!

During the summer of 1977 three junior girls enthusiastically participated in the Foreign Exchange Program. Penny Herideen sunbathed in Sao Paulo, Brazil, Donna Holt discoed around Mexico City, Mexico, and Susan Sedor partied in Cali, Columbia. Education in local schools helped to round out the fast paced exciting lives they experienced for 2 months, one which they will never forget.

This year, both students and faculty had the opportunity to learn how to save a person's life by means of cardio-pulmonary resuscitation (CPR). With the help of instructors from Hubbard Regional Hospital, the techniques of CPR as well as first aid were learned and practiced. An assembly was later held to honor the students with certificates.

OHS held its 1st annual Spirit Week November 21-25. Organized by the student council activities included dressing class pirates, a contest between classes for the best decorated hall (won by seniors!), a pep rally, the Thanksgiving Day Football game, and a Spirit Dance. The week was a great success resulting in a school that showed its spirit!

"Career Education" is the totality of experiences through which one learns about and prepares to engage in work as part of his or her way of life. In 1977 and '78 10 OHS students served with various members of the community on a board designed to suggest programs that might be implemented in the Oxford School System. The ideas are now being developed and considered.

Two members of the Senior Chorus chosen to participate in the Central District chorus were Jody Rawson and Dana Blanchard. Both were also chosen to audition for the All-State Chorus.

Representing the OHS band in Central District were Mark Flynn, John Songdahl, Francis Langlois and Peter Gillies. Several of the boys also auditioned for all-state band.

Mark Clark held his title as Ping Pong champion for his 3rd straight year. In Badminton senior Min Lehner won for the girls, and it was Stephen Day for the boys.

The underlying purpose of this and any yearbook is to provide a review of our senior year. To say that we include the underclassmen to sell subscriptions would be a hypocrisy. To say we include them because we must would be an insult to the vital role they play in the school and would not benefit the original purpose. We simply include the underclassmen with the same frame of mind that we include the faculty, or for that matter ourselves; because they are a part of our senior year. Having been underclassmen ourselves is what makes our senior year special and when we look back we should see this.

Several months have now passed since Donna and I wrote the Foreword for this year's book and I honestly don't remember its content. If we have erred or ignored an important element which should have been included, it is because an alternate course was physically impossible, and I openly apologize.

I regret the injustice of the many people who have contributed their time and efforts to our book who will go forever unrecognized other than the distinct pride they hold. I can however honor a select few.

Jerry Wolfe did most of the artwork for Ravelins' 78. But Jerry is more than just an artist, he's artistic. He's got taste, a natural feel for aesthetics and design fundamentals.

Barbara Richards. What can I say about Barbara? If it wasn't for her dedication and dexterity coupled with her spirit and encouragement there would be no yearbook. Also Laurie Hull, Linda Kowalcky, and Dianne Wessell who always seemed to find their way to school at such predictable times such as evenings, weekends, snow days, and holidays to lend a more than welcome helping hand.

Our appreciation is extended to the faculty, administration, and especially the secretaries for their cooperation and patience.

And don't think for a minute I intend to leave out my Co-Editor. Donna has been fantastic. And stubborn? You bet she is, there's only one person I know more so, and that's me. Why we get along so well I'll never know but I'm glad we do. Donna and I will always look at this book with different eyes than most. While the whole of the class of '78 will look at it as memories of our senior year, we will look at it as being our senior year.

And I have a lot of pride in our senior year.

Bruce J. Bayfield

1978 Ravelins will never mean as much to those who read it as to those of us who lived and breathed yearbook for more than a year. For after you sign autographs and your book starts to collect dust, I'll still have the memories of the work and enjoyment that built Ravelins.

I'm going to start off with Bruce, just because he put me last, and it's standard procedure for us not to agree on anything. There were two high points working this past year with him: 1) The first time I ever heard him laugh out loud; and 2) The time he answered a question within 2 minutes. But in all seriousness, Bruce knew what he was doing and did it all well without complaining, (he never laughed either but at least he didn't complain). We were lucky enough to complement each other as a real team. I did the non-stop public talking; Bruce knew technical angles and naturally argued every other point.

The staff who worked with us, from typists to writers, added to our success. We had donut breaks together at 9 p.m. and they gave up vacations and free time to work. The dedication of the few Bruce mentioned has paid off for all of us at O.H.S.

Bruce covered most of the formalities, but I would also like to add my thanks to the administration, faculty and students who came to our rescue many times. Mrs. Prouty really knows who's who in all pictures, and Mr. Langaas lent his camera talents on numerous occasions.

It's a strange feeling to be writing about part of your life, because yearbook became that for me. It was frustrating and fun, late nights and running around. Passing inspirations became great ideas. We made mistakes and we learned.

But whatever we did, we tried to do with pride. Pride in our work, our school and most of all, in our 1978 Ravelins. Like I said before, you'll never understand what that means.

Donna R. Holt

You just call out my name
And you know wherever I am
I'll come running to see you again.

Winter, spring, summer or fall
All you've got to do is call,
And I'll be there, yes I will —
You've got a friend.
